October is National Arts & Humanities Month. Here is President Biden's proclamation.

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"Art doesn't transform. It just plain forms." - Roy Lichtenstein

"The good die young — but not always. The wicked prevail — but not consistently. I am confused by life, and I feel safe within the confines of the theatre. O'Neil's dramas are slapstick farces, Albee's riddles are simple explanations, Pinter's threatening and threatened anti-heroes are innocent babes — next to life and the living. I cry out for order and find it only in art." — Helen Hayes

"The smallest deed is better than the greatest intention." – John Burroughs

"We face the future fortified with the lessons we have learned from the past. It is today that we must create the world of the future. Spinoza, I think, pointed out that we ourselves can make experience valuable when, by imagination and reason, we turn it into foresight." – Eleanor Roosevelt

"Life is what happens to you while you're busy making other plans." – John Lennon

"You are educated when you have the ability to listen to almost anything without losing your temper or self-confidence." – Robert Frost

"Besides the noble art of getting things done, there is the noble art of leaving things undone. The wisdom of life consists in the elimination of non-essentials." – Lin Yutang

"Politics is the art of looking for trouble, finding it everywhere, diagnosing it incorrectly and applying the wrong remedies." – Groucho Marx
